JAX At The Tracks Helps Victims of Truckee Explosion

Aug. 20, 2009 (Truckee, Calif.) –JAX At The Tracks is providing donation options for those wishing to help the family involved in the residential explosion at the Henness Flats apartment complex Tuesday.

JAX owner, Bud Haley, who employs a resident of Henness Flats displaced as a result of the accident, encourages the community to donate to the Henness Flats memorial fund at Wells Fargo. A donation box has been set up at the restaurant, which will go directly to the memorial fund. JAX guests can also add in a donation to their checks.

In addition to the donation options available at JAX, Haley is also planning a community luncheon next week to thank the Truckee Police Department and all those in the community who rushed to the scene on Tuesday.

“It’s important for us to come together as a community and support our friends, family and neighbors,” Haley said.

JAX is located “At The Tracks” at 10144 West River St. in historic downtown Truckee, Calif. JAX is open seven days a week from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. serving breakfast, lunch and dinner. For more information call 530-550-7450.
